Residence Life Night Porter

1. Job Description
The Residence Night Porter is responsible to the Residence Life Coordinator (RLC) via the Residence Head Night Porter. Night Porters are primarily responsible for working with the rest of the Residence Life staff and Property Watch Officials (PWOs) to help create and promote a safe and secure residence environment that is supportive to a diverse community of residence students. Night Porters are expected to set a positive example by ensuring their conduct is in keeping with residence policies and that they act in a manner appropriate for a role model.

The Night Porter role provides an on-campus job opportunity for eligible York University undergraduate students. Night Porters receive opportunities to work in a support role while developing valuable, relevant skills and work experience for the workplace. The role offers a learning and development opportunity for experiential on-the-job training, guidance and mentorship. Under the guidance of permanent staff members (Residence Life Coordinators), Night Porters will provide support to students living in residence.

Competencies
Through this role, a Residence Life Night Porter will have opportunities to develop and enhance specific skills in the following competencies:

1. Communication
2. Interpersonal Connections
3. Personal Success
4. Critical Thinking and Problem Solving

Organizational Status
This position reports directly to a Residence Life Coordinator and works in cooperation with Housing Services.

Work Performed – Basic Duties and Responsibilities
Administrative
1. Maintains equipment rental system in accordance with the Night Porter manual;
2. Submits end of shift reports as per established timelines;
3. Submits academic schedule to Head Porter for scheduling in accordance with the direction of the Head Night Porter;
4. Ensures that the Porter Station is kept in an orderly fashion and that all electronics, rentals, binders, and supplies are placed in the appropriate locations at the end of each shift;
5. Attends monthly Night Porter staff meetings.

Building Operations
1. Communicates via maintenance requests and follows up on facility concerns, damages, and maintenance concerns with the Housing Office;
2. Encourages students to take responsibility for the cleanliness and maintenance of the residence;
3. Promotes building security and expectations for personal and community safety by policy enforcement, developing a relationship with Residence Dons and Property Watch Officials;
4. Signs guests in and out within the guidelines expressed in the Residence Handbook and the Guest Policy; ensures that all relevant information is collected and entered into the system;
5. Monitors the entering and exiting of individuals and ensures community standards are abided by;
6. Maintains the cleanliness of the Porter Station ensuring a safe working environment;
7. Completes recycling shifts as designated;
8. Checks that residents have left the main residence common room/kitchen clean at the end of each shift as designated.

Community Development and Leadership
1. Takes a proactive approach in building a community based on mutual respect, consideration, and open-mindedness;
2. Promotes student involvement in residence, the College, and the greater campus community;
3. Works as a team player by focusing on consistency, communication, and support.

Liaison/Consulting/Tasks
1. Develops appropriate relationships with residents to ensure approachability and the creation of a cohesive community;
2. Communicates with the Head Night Porter, other Residence Life staff, the RLC, and students on a regular basis;
3. Acts as a resource person for residents for any difficulties they may be encountering and makes appropriate referrals to Residence Don staff;
4. Attends House/Floor meetings on a regular basis;
5. Maintains confidentiality when handling student information and reports concerns to the RLC.

Miscellaneous
1. Assists in development and maintenance of policies and procedures;
2. Participates in all required training sessions;
3. Reads and is familiar with the Night Porter manual, Residence Handbook, Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Residence Emergency Procedures, and any material distributed by Residence Life & Housing Services for residents/Porters;
4. Acts as a positive role model by committing to, and maintaining, a level of conduct which is an example of responsible behaviour, academic leadership, acceptance of diversity and dedication to the betterment of the residence and university community.
5. Responsible for the proper use and storage of confidential lists, duty cell phone, duty keys, and other equipment following the direction of the RLC;
6. Takes necessary remedial actions for urgent after-hours maintenance situations per standard operating procedures to mitigate health, safety, and/or security risks (e.g. emergency clean-ups etc.);

Other duties as assigned by the Residence Life Coordinator and/or Director, Residence Life.
2. Qualifications

Education and Experience

- Lives in a York University undergraduate residence
- Current York full-time, senior undergraduate or graduate student*, with a good academic record (a minimum 5.0 cumulative grade point average or better, we encourage applicants from diverse programs of study)
- A good understanding of student issues and concerns
- Valid CPR C/Standard First Aid certificate is required (training will be offered for those without a current certificate).
- Incumbents must also have completed a minimum of 18 credits over the previous F/W session and commit to remain enrolled in a minimum of 18 credits while in residence.
- Customer service and leadership experience is an asset
- *Any full-time graduate student who receives a funding package must obtain approval from the Graduate Program before accepting a Don position.
- Considerations for extenuating circumstances are subject to the approval of the DRL

Skills and Qualifications

- Responsible and detail oriented
- Ability to manage time effectively and to be self-directed
- Well-developed interpersonal skills and the ability to work well with others
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Ability to respond to emergencies in a calm and professional manner
- Good judgment
- Ability to work well both independently and as a member of a team
- Strong communication skills
- Ability to interact effectively with a diverse student community.
- Willingness to work flexible hours
- Demonstrated commitment to the values of the Division of Students: care, collaboration, accountability, respect, innovation, excellence and inclusion

3. Job Duration

Night Porters will be employed from August training until the Undergraduate Residence Occupancy Agreement Occupancy end date, which is typically in late April. Job duration includes orientation week, weekends, and holidays. Night Porters are responsible for shifts from 7pm to 1am, e.g., shifts from 7:00pm to 10:00 pm and 10:00pm to 1:00am. Night Porters must be available to work a minimum of one shift per week. Night Porters are required to work throughout orientation from 7:00 am – 1:00 am with possible shifts including 7:00 am – 11:00 am, 11:00 am – 3:00 pm, 3:00 pm – 7:00 pm, 7:00 pm – 10:00 pm, and 10:00 pm – 1:00 am. Night Porters are expected to be available for most of orientation. Timing and involvement with recycling shifts will be coordinated with the RLC and other Night Porter staff. Shift schedules are subject to change.
4. Student Learning Components

Orientation, Training, and On-going Professional Development

- *Night Porters will receive training in the following areas:
  - Respect, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Tutorial; WHMIS; Health and Safety; AODA; Privacy and Confidentiality; Residence Community Standards; Technical programs such as eRezlife software; Emergency Response; Safety and Security; and Customer Service

*Training topics are determined over the summer and may be subject to change.

Feedback, Ongoing Support, and Reflection

- The RLC will provide feedback to the Night Porter on an ongoing basis, highlighting challenges and successes

Networking and Mentorship Opportunities

- Opportunity to work alongside professional staff in Residence Life
- Opportunity to interact with students/residents with diverse backgrounds
- Opportunity to establish relationships with student services campus partners
- Opportunity to serve as a role model to residents within residence

Contribution to York as a whole

- Opportunity to strive for excellence in building a connected residence community